TALKS WITH A BRUSH

AN ECCENTRIC OLD EVANGELIST OF WESTCHESTER, N. Y.

Winter and Summer He Wanders Along the Roads Painting Scripture Texts on Bowlders—Nothing Deters Him—Passive When Violence Is Used.

Who is the mysterious paint brush evangelist of Westchester county? Up and down the beautiful hills and along the rugged, rocky roads of Westchester for miles after miles his work can be seen. The wayfarer cannot escape it. At every fresh turn in the road the painted words of warning confront him. Even the most ungodly sinner in all New York, after walking a mile from the little village of White Plains, would think he was surely on the rocky road to the New Jerusalem.

Up in Westchester they call the mysterious evangelist the "Scripture Slinger," and they say "he slings it powerful thick." So he does, and with discrimination rare, in paint of the hue of heaven's own blue, mixed in oil.

All along those rocky roads the fences are made of huge bowlders, out of which rough walls are made, separating the pastures and bounding the road-sides. Besides there are still other bowlders jutting out of the soil along the roadway. On these, and on the stone fences, the mysterious evangelist unfolds his warnings. He is a little man, but energetic. He is a silent man, except with his brush, made out of hairs plucked from the necks of oxen. With it he speaks. His only name is "George."

He marches, a Salvation Army of one man, carrying a bugle to announce his coming. His sandy mustache bristles, and the lines of his face show sixty years. There hangs upon his head an old straw hat, summer and winter, and on the hat is a broad ribbon, bearing the legend, "Jesus is mighty to save." A cane, carved with innumerable inscriptions, helps him over the hills as he marches on carrying the battered hand-bag in which repose his restless brush, his pot of paint, his Bible and other little things, such as a comb and cake of soap.

Through the use of which he keeps himself only a conditional. They may think there is no vanity in him, nor any glass with a quicksilver back in that battered bag.

As he marches he picks a rock, big and brown, half hidden behind a clump of weeds, and on which he left no message when last along that way. In a moment the words are approved, and kneeling by the rock he paints, letter by letter, "O be ye like the Lord." Then he marches on reading the Bible. On a smooth worn bowlder in the stone fence, he paints, "Repent! Believe! And sin no more." Across a thicket he leaves a warning, "You must repent or go to hell." A little further on he kneels again, and under his brush grow the words, "The wages for sinners is hell fire."

There are painted words, though along the roads more worldly than the ones he leave there. One of them says "Spend your Sundays at Manhattan beach." On finding this it is said he bowed his head a moment. Then in a deeper shade of blue than usual, mixed on the spot, he painted right alongside the words, "Where will you spend eternity?"

Many of the farmers up in Westchester take summer boards, and on a big tree in the front yard each of these puts up a sign which reads: "Pleasant summer home. Board by the day or week." Across the road from such as these the paint brush says, "Think of that beautiful home above."

So the strange evangelist goes on, fighting the world with blue paint, measure for measure, and covering the sad plus space with admonition, exhortation and advice.

To him all things are of the world worldly, and therefore he knows naught of politics.

This strange man sleeps by the roadside, in a stable or where he may, and for months eats only what is given him. Money is nothing to him. For a little while each year he works on the Sound View stock farm, owned by William A. Sammis, and it is then he pulls the hair from the necks of oxen and makes his stock of brushes. His paint is given him and he mixes it him self.

He has been told to stop the task of covering the rocks of Westchester with blue paint, but he keeps on. By his action he says, "Shall a man not make his fellow man reflect?"

Township trustees threaten and resolve in vain. The motives multiply. Assaults do not terrify him. Once he was met by two men near the Westchester fair grounds and commanded to stop painting a sentence he had begun. He turned his back to them and kept on without reply. When he had finished he began a new sentence. Then the men rushed at him and struck him down senseless with clubs. The unfinished sentence read:

"Forgive thine"

GOULD-HYMERS.
A Quiet Wedding of Two of Reno's Well-Known Young People.
Last evening, at the residence of the bride's parents, about a mile east of town, Mr. Will Gould and Miss Prindle Hyman were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. Magill. Miss Maggie Hyman acted as bridesmaid and Mr. G. Crosby as best man. There were about thirty-five persons present, consisting of relatives and intimate friends.
After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the dining-room, where a feast was being awaiting them. Miss Ione Gould showed her adaptability in the able manner in which she conducted the entire proceedings.
The couple intended leaving on last evening's train to spend their honeymoon in California, but owing to the illness of Mr. Gould their departure has been indefinitely postponed.
The young people have lived in Reno for years and have many friends here, who wish them every happiness in their new relationship. The bride is the daughter of Mr. John Hyman, a prominent ranchman upon the Truckee Meadows, and niece of Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Hyman of Reno. The groom is the oldest son of W. H. Gould, one of the leading farmers of the county. He is manager of the Reno Creamery. The JOURNAL wishes the young couple a happy and prosperous voyage upon the matrimonial sea.
The following gifts were received by the couple:
W. H. Gould and daughter, Ione, furnished the parlor in the future home of the bride and groom complete with furniture, carpet, picture, bric-a-brac, etc.
Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Gould, umbrella stand and a set of hemstitching drapes.
Allie Gould, parlor lamp.
Miss Urrah and Mr. Crosby, oxen clock.
Maggie Hyman, set of silver knives and forks.
Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Hyman, table linen.
Nellie Hyman, set of silver fruit knives.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hyman, sixteenth-century chair.
Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Rice and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Rice, silver tea set.
Orvis Ring, solid silver berry spoon.
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Parry, silver water pitcher and silver fruit dish.
Mrs. M. A. Higgins and family, table linen.
Miss Sarah Higgins, silver napkin rings.
James Higgins, crystal butter dish.
G. W. Parry, silver napkin rings and China cup and saucer.
Chas. Blithen, half-dozen solid silver teaspoons.
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. De Hart, set of silver fruit knives.
The JOURNAL feels tender to its thanks for a liberal supply of wedding cake and other good things.
A NEW CONTEST.
A Carson Lady Breaks the Record.
At a contest in Carson recently between a number of young ladies at a private party as to which could drive fifteen nails in a board in the shortest time, Miss Ida Elliott won in one hour and thirty-five minutes. The tally, as kept by a young man present, is as follows: Missed the nail on the first stroke at 431 times, missed all the nails and the whole board 58 times, hit a bystander by reason of the hammer missing the board and flying out of her hands twice, also broke a large plate mirror, and one window from the same cause, pounded her fingers 63 times, lost her temper five times and did not sweat audibly at all. The above record, it is sincerely believed, cannot be beaten anywhere upon the American continent. That any being of a lower order than an angel of the thirty-third degree of immolation could have pounded her fingers five and a quarter times, broken a costly mirror and a window in the bargain without losing her temper but five times in the course of more than an hour and a half seems incredible. After this remarkable exhibition of the patient virtues it was only meet and proper that it should have been followed by a contest among the young men as to which could put up a stove with disjuncted stove-pipe in the shortest number of days without swearing.
Hard Times Prevalent Everywhere in Nevada.
To say times are dull on the Comstock is drawing it mild. There are probably less men employed in the mines at the present time than ever before known since Virginia was a mining camp and the Comstock lode known to exist. The prevalent dullness and inaction is severely felt by every branch of business, and the decline of the year 1892 is anything but rosy. But the same state of affairs exists throughout Nevada. The mining industry is stagnant, and there seems but little chance for an improved condition of things.
An exchange says: Tuscarora presents an exceedingly dull appearance at the present time, where there is not a steam hoist in action and only leasers at work, and it is reported merchants have refused to give helpless poor families credit. Another striking illustration of what the demoralization of silver has done.—Chronicle.
People's Party Notes.
The Populists carried 30 counties in Georgia.
Weaver carried 52 out of the 55 counties in Colorado.
Weaver carried 60 and Harrison 40 of the 105 counties in Kansas.
West Virginia Democrats elected a Congressman who was induced by the Populists.
Jack county, Texas, elected a full People's party ticket by majorities ranging from 81 to 185.
Illinois cast 24,590 votes for Weaver. Cook county polled 1,581 votes for the Populist candidate.
California voted overwhelmingly in favor of electing United States Senators by popular vote.
Of 46,000 votes cast in Mississippi Weaver received 10,000.

SAN FRANCISCO MEAT MARKET.
The Baden People Cutting Prices.
The condition of affairs at Butcher-town is not one of assurance among the slaughterers. This is no doubt in a measure due to the competition of refrigerator beef placed on the market. At this season of the year there is no reason why beef should be bringing 5 1/2 to 6c, and the latter price is certainly the top price that beef has sold on the bridge this week. The Baden people, seeing themselves heavily overstocked, commenced slaughtering prices on Wednesday and as butchers are naturally anxious to deal in the cheapest market they have taken this opportunity of trying the Baden beef. From our interviews with retail butchers we learn that buyers at Sixth and Townsend make their own price and that no reasonable offer is refused. On inquiring at the Baden cold storage house we did not find things quite so bad as that, but there is no doubt that the refrigerator beef men have made up their minds to undersell the wholesalers, and prices are from 1/2 to 3/4 below the market at Butcher-town. The slaughterers say that as Baden is solidifying cattle on commission and then practically giving away other people's property, the slipper is the one that will have to foot the bill. Be this as it may, we think the Baden company too slow at this early stage to kill the goose that may be likely to lay the golden eggs. There is no surplus cattle on hand but there is plenty to fill present requirements. Some very fine Christmas beef is beginning to arrive, which, when dressed, will enable retailers to make their annual exhibits. Our quotations are a good indication of the market.—Butcher's Gazette.

Remarkable Predictions.
More than thirty-five years ago a German paper published some remarkable predictions that had been made by a German hermit. Among them was the rise and fall of the third Napoleon, the Austro-Prussian and Franco-German wars, the episode of the French commune, the death of Pope Pius the Ninth, the Russo-Turkish war and several other events which have since occurred.
The fulfillment of the prophecies, which were published in 1859 in the Allgemeine Zeitung, are pronounced by Russian papers as "most remarkable in their foresightfulness," gives some interest to others, said to have been made by the same prognosticator, in regard to events to take place at the opening of the present century. Here are a few of them:
The city of New York and its inhabitants are to be overwhelmed and slide down into the sea. Cuba is to break in twain and half of that is to be submerged. Florida and California are to part with the mainland and also go down into the depths. Only one more President is to be elected, so that the twentieth century will open with the close of the present Republic. Six Republics are to be formed out of the debris, with capitals at Washington, Boston, St. Louis, New Orleans, Salt Lake City and San Francisco.
The United States is not to be alone affected by the physical and political changes in the new century. Italy and France are to be destroyed. Berlin is to be shaken to pieces by an earthquake. England is to be a Republic, and Ireland is to be free and independent.
Holiday Gifts.
Special attention must be called to Hyman Fredrick's elegant display for the holidays of diamonds, watches, jewelry and novelties of every description. A glance in his show window and store will make one realize that Christmas is at hand. No trouble to show goods, and prices lower than the lowest.
School Report.
Following is the monthly report of the Spanish Spring Valley school:
Scholarship—May Dunning, 95.
Department—Minnie Dunning, Gertrude, Roy Cowles, Archie Clute, Lucy Tom-michiel, Ivy Clute.
CHRISTINE E. ELLIOTT, Teacher.
The Reno Guards are hard at work making arrangements for their grand uniform ball on the 30th inst. The boys have always made a complete success of their former parties, and it is safe to presume that this one will be no exception to the rule.

KILLED ELEVEN DEER.
B. F. Curlier is the Champion Deer Hunter.
Ben Curlier, District Attorney-elect of this county, returned yesterday afternoon from a deer hunting trip out to Dick Arrowsmith's ranch in Indian Valley, where he went about twelve days ago. He was four days traveling to and from that place. During the eight days remaining Ben shot eleven deer. He left two among his friends out in the Valley, and sent in nine by wagon, which will arrive to-day. Last year at the same place he shot five deer in three days.
Tuesday Ben got ready to return home and had the nine deer hauled from Ross' ranch at Red Rock to the Dry Creek station on the N. C. O., intending to have them shipped in to Reno. The railroad officials, however, refused to receive them, as the station was in California, and the law of that State made it a misdemeanor to pack with a heavy fine, to transport them. Ben, therefore, had to walk back to Ross' ranch, where he hired a man to bring them in to Reno by wagon. The deer were shot in Nevada where it is perfectly legitimate to shoot deer at this season of the year.
Emerald News.
The following news items are taken from the Walker Lake Bulletin:
Six bars of bullion, valued at $8,112, were shipped by the Mt. Diablo Company Sunday.
Considerable development work is being done at Marietta. Messrs. F. H. Shannon, Maguire and Purcell have good properties.
Tom Calow and James McMaisters have taken a lease of the Hartford mine, Hawthorne district. They began work on Monday.
George Coffin is relieving J. R. Harcourt, agent at Belleville, while the latter and his wife are making a week's visit to friends in Reno.
J. E. Parr and family left last week for San Francisco; thence they go to Pasadena, where Mrs. Parr and the children will stay during the winter, and Mr. Parr will go to Arizona to look over the mining situation.
Shorty says that deer are thick in the vicinity and advises all the sharpshooters to visit the creek. His cabin will be their headquarters if they bring a supply of rattlesnake antidote along with them.
The Gold Bar mine in Hawthorne district is believed to be one of the best in the district. Five tons of ore worked in the adrosta last week produced $1,100. This lot was worked as an experiment, and the lessees will begin work in real earnest this week. There is every reason to believe that the Gold Bar will prove to be a very valuable property. It is owned by D. Tobino and leased by Pietro Vitelli.
Deserves Attention.
If you have money to invest in Reno real estate, either in large or small amounts, the Reno Real Estate and Investment Company offers most particular inducements to you. By investing in its shares of stock you participate in its investments which are governed by its able and experienced Board of Trustees, consisting of Mr. C. T. Bunder, Mr. Sol Levy, Mr. C. C. Powning, Mr. Geo. F. Torritt and Mr. A. G. Fletcher. The principle object of the company is to purchase and improve centrally located business property in the city of Reno. Everyone is of one mind as to the desirability of such investments.
The company is incorporated with a capital of $100,000, divided into 20,000 shares of the par value of five dollars each, and from its already large list of share holders there is every reason to believe that it is destined to become one of the most flourishing companies in the State. Of its 20,000 shares there have been 12,000 sold since August 1st.
Its shares are sold upon the monthly installment plan of ten cents per share, installments to range over a period of fifty months. In this way persons of moderate means are enabled to combine and participate in investments that usually only fall to the lot of the fortunate capitalist. Mr. F. M. Lee, the Secretary of the company, will be pleased to furnish any desired information.
Western Bi-Chloride Institute of Reno, Nevada.
For the treatment and cure of the Liquor, Morphine, Opium, Cocaine, Tobacco and Kindred Diseases, will be ready in a few days to receive patients for the cure of the above mentioned diseases. Cure guaranteed in each case. A more definite announcement in a day or two. Any communications regarding treatment may be addressed to T. F. Bradshaw, Manager, or Wm. Webster, President; physician, John A. Lewis.
Overcoats.
